

WESTERN AUSTRALIA

Domestic Violence Orders (National Recognition) Act 2017 s. 41

Application for National Recognition of a Family / Domestic Violence Restraining Order

Number

Jurisdiction

 Magistrates Court of WA
 Children's Court of WA

Location

Applicant

(Person applying to have order recognised)

Family Name

Other Names

Address Street

Postcode

Phone Numbers

Work

Home

Mobile

Are you a police officer the parent or guardian of a child protected by the order the person protected by the order the legal guardian of the person protected by the orderOrder Details

State/Territory or Country in which the order was made?

Western Australia (If WA, please skip to 'Notice to Person Bound' section)South Australia Northern Territory Queensland New South Wales Tasmania

Victoria N/A*

* All existing Victorian orders were deemed to be nationally recognised on 25 November 2017. No application is required.

Outside Australia

Country

Court in which the order was made?

Date order was made

Order Duration

Order No.

Person Protected by Order

(if not applicant)

Family Name

Other Names

Address Street

Postcode

Phone Numbers

Work

Home

Mobile

Person Bound by Order

Family Name

Other Names

Address Street

Postcode

Phone Numbers

Work

Home

Mobile

Notice to Person BoundI do / do not consent to notice of the outcome of this application being given to the person bound by the orderSignature

Signature of Applicant

Hearing (to be filled in by the court)

Court

Date

Time

Notification of Hearing

I certify that on/...../..... atam/pm at I notified the person applying to have an order nationally recognised of the hearing date.

Signature of Clerk

Please note that a brief affidavit is required to be lodged in support of this application.

A copy of the affidavit is available at www.magistratescourt.wa.gov.au > Restraining Orders, or any Magistrates Court registry.

